Deaf and Hard of Hearing Individuals and SUD: It's Complicated

Presenter: Keven Poore, MA, CDI, CASAC II

Date: Wednesday, May 12, 2021

Time: 9:00 AM – Noon

Cost: $35

Content: Deaf and hard of hearing people have long been marginalized as a group in all walks of life and those with substance use disorders (SUD) are no different. This workshop will address challenges faced by Deaf and hard of hearing people as they navigate the continuum of care while they struggle with SUD. Incorporating lecture, small groups and occasional video clips, this workshop will provide an overview of Deaf and hard of hearing individuals, the barriers they face, the treatment challenges they encounter and what providers can do to reduce the disparity in service quality and overall experience.
