Marijuana Legalization: Implications for Youth, Families, and Communities

Presenter: Jennifer Faringer, MSEd, CPP-G

Date: Wednesday, September 21, 2022

Time: 9:00 AM – Noon

Cost: $40

Content: This workshop will explore the varieties and strengths of marijuana and concentrates as well as the signs, symptoms and short/long-term effects of use. We will briefly explore closely related trends to include vaping and re-emerging synthetic cannabinoids. Covered will be current trends (national and state) and aspects of both medical and legalized marijuana. Included will be a discussion of the highlights of the NYS MRTA (Marijuana Regulation and Taxation Act, April 2021). Discussion will include implications and considerations for our work with youth, families, and communities.
