

June 2025

The Truth Behind Our Screens

Presenter: Delia Gallmeyer, MS, MHC

Date: Wednesday, June 4, 2025

Time: 9:00 a.m. - Noon

Cost: $40

Content: According to Pew Research (2023), 97% of Americans own a cell phone of some kind and nine-in-ten own a smart phone. Research has found that social media provides access to substances that can increase an individual’s likelihood of misusing drugs or alcohol. In this workshop, participants will increase their knowledge and awareness of smartphone and social media trends, recognize manipulative platform designs and how this can influence addictive behavior across all ages. Additionally, discussed will be how social media plays a significant role in the ongoing misuse of drugs.

Continental breakfast is provided.

The Ripple Effect: How Incarceration Impacts the Family System and Addiction

Presenter: Jeffrey Footer LCSW, Master CASAC-G

Date: Friday, June 13, 2025

Time: 9:00 a.m. - Noon

Cost: $40

Content: Family members of incarcerated individuals are often referred to as "hidden victims" of the criminal justice system. They are neither acknowledged nor given a platform to be heard. These hidden victims receive little personal support and do not benefit from the systemic societal mechanisms generally available to direct crime victims, despite their prevalence and their similarities to direct crime victims. Children whose parents are involved in the criminal justice system face a host of challenges and difficulties: psychological strain, antisocial behavior, suspension or expulsion from school, economic hardship, criminal activity, and addiction. Research has shown there is a link between incarceration and substance use.

Continental breakfast is provided.
