National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence - Rochester Area

MAY 2026

Utilizing a Structured Intervention in a Clinical Setting

Presenter: Charles Montante, M.S, LMHC

Date: Friday, May 1, 2026

Time: 9:00 a.m. - Noon

Cost: $40

Content: Popular media has created a demand for family intervention services. In this interactive training, participants will explore family systems theory and apply these principles to an initial intervention. Participants will gain and understanding of family systems theory as it applies to substance use disorder treatment and an understanding of intervention as a process. Participants will also have an opportunity to participate in an initial family intervention.

Continental breakfast is provided.
