Finger Lakes Prevention Resource Center

The Finger Lakes Prevention Resource Center (FL PRC), of the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence-Rochester Area began services on October 1st, 2009. The FL PRC serves the following counties: Broome, Chemung, Livingston, Monroe, Ontario, Schuyler, Seneca, Steuben, Tioga, Tompkins, Wayne, and Yates.

Vision:

The Finger Lakes Prevention Resource Center (FL-PRC) works to create sustainable community coalitions who promote healthy substance-free environments.

Mission:

Finger Lakes Prevention Resource Center (FL PRC) promotes the use of the Strategic Prevention Framework (SPF) by providing training and technical assistance to coalitions and providers for the purpose of unifying and mobilizing communities to use prevention strategies, promote sustainability of drug free programs, and encourage partnership with local, state, and federal entities in the 12 county Finger Lakes Region.
